Bonzo the Cat

Bonzo is a street cat. Everybody on Angel Street knows him, but nobody knows where he came from. He is about three years old, but appeared in the area six months ago and never left. The black and white arrival, who only has one ear, was named Bonzo by one of the residents. Soon everyone was using the name.

Bonzo's favourite place to sit is on top of cars, in the sunshine. In wet weather he shelters under the library steps but when it gets dark, he climbs through the broken window of Number 8, an empty house in Angel Street. Every morning he reappears and walks up to people. If they don't have anything for him to eat, he doesn't want to play but simply walks away. He always seems hungry.

Last week, when Tom Crates left his house, he saw a 'For Sale' sign outside Number 8. Tom, who was late for work, drove off but he thought about Bonzo. At the end of the road, he was surprised to see a police car behind him with flashing lights, and wondered what the problem was. When Tom slowed down to turn off the engine he was shocked when Bonzo fell off the roof onto the front of the car.

Tom jumped out but luckily, Bonzo was not hurt. Tom explained everything to the policeman, who told him to check his car more carefully every morning. Tom decided that, with Number 8 for sale, Bonzo needed a real home and decided to keep him. Now, Bonzo spends most of his time sleeping on Tom's sofa!

For questions 1–3, please answer in complete sentences. (2 marks each)

1. How long has Bonzo been living on Angel Street?

2. What does Bonzo look like?

3. Where does Bonzo live now?
